

Summer Reading

All students entering Sophomore Honors English for the 2016-2017 school year must read the following works before school begins. Students will be tested on this material the first week of school. While notes and annotations will not be collected for points, the responsible student will prepare for school by keeping records of the characters, plot and themes.

1. The Glass Castle by Jeannette Walls
2. Bless Me Ultima by Rudolfo Anaya
